A realistic story tells about something that could happen.
Example: The boy caught the football.

A fantasy is a story about something that could NOT happen.
Example: The dog got dressed and read the newspaper.